

Community, friendship, happiness and fulfillment

That's what Pathfinder Village offers everyone who becomes part of this internationally well-regarded community.

Set on 300 acres, nestled in the Wharton Valley, is Pathfinder Village, a thoughtfully designed community that facilitates freedom, social integration and personal independence.

The Pathfinder tradition dates back to 1922 offering individuals with Down syndrome and intellectual disabilities and their families a place where "each life may find meaning."

